

Lincoln cent attrition rate

The greatest discrepancy was in 1961, the number observed (261) was only 52% of what was expected (552).

These data suggest that attrition for Philadelphia-minted coins is higher than that for Denver-minted coins (does not include years with no mintmarks or years with San Francisco-minted coins).